

David Thompson - Screenwriter

realityisunlimited@gmail.com

www.realityunleashed.com

909-510-6314

Accomplishments, employment, skills, and education allow me to transcend and adapt into any position for an organization's success, effectively working independently or in a group based upon team and leadership training.

Skills

Screenwriting, Flash Fiction, Short films, and short stories

Education

Full Sail University, Orlando, Master of Fine Arts Creative Writing

Liberty University, Lynchburg, MA Pastoral Counseling, Marriage and Family Therapy

Argosy University, Ontario, BA Psychology, Substance Abuse

Liberty University, Lynchburg, MA Leadership (in progress)

Accomplishments

- * Optioned Original Screenplay; To Protect and to Serve
- * Completed two additional feature-length screenplays; Divine Intervention and The Player
- * Formed a computer and telecommunications consulting firm (ACCS) for corporate and residential clients

Work Experience

Lyft and Uber, Los Angeles, CA 3/2015 - Present

Driver

- While driving to destinations across Southern California, engage passengers from around the country and the world in conversations that provide fodder for dialogue, narratives, and distinctive characters.
- Escalated ride sharing from the mundane to majestic by personally engaging his riders resulting in them calling him a therapist as opposed to driver. This is reminiscent of the HBO show Taxi Cab Confessions.

Reality Unlimited, LLC, Adelanto, CA 4/2014– 02/2015

Telephone Support

- Setup roadside assistance for drivers stranded across the country with patience and compassion.
- Ascertained locations of drivers in remote locations using intuitive detective work using landmarks and mile markers.
- From his home-office, received calls and determined the needs of stranded drivers, dispatching police and/or service vehicles as necessary.

Argosy University, Ontario, CA 8/2007 – 2/2011

Commercial Truck Driver

- Drove a big-rig over 35 states through rain, snow, and blizzards to deliver goods and hazardous materials.
- Engaged travelers, residents, and vacationers at truck stops, rest areas, and businesses from coast to coast.
- Expanded my knowledge of people across the country from rural areas to metropolises.